ANOTHER MINORITY?

We have heard much about minorities for some time, the Czechoslovakia minority problem being the highlight in international minorities recently.

It is interesting to observe that the trend seems to be for outside parties to decide what the people of certain areas are to do, politically, and otherwise.

This new phase of juggling boundary lines has now arrived in B.C. as regards the boundaries of many constituencies within the province — without consulting the people, as far as we can find out.

We now understand that a Mr. Phillips, Returning Officer of Vancouver, after some five months of study and examination of the map of British Columbia, on behalf of our Provincial Government, now recommends many changes in boundaries of the various constituencies, the creation of a new constituency and the abolition of the Islands riding. It is proposed to incorporate North Saanich in the Saanich riding and the Gulf Islands off of North Saanich with the city of Nanaimo, the latter riding to be known as Nanaimo and Islands. Mr. Phillips, after examining the map, arrives at the conclusion "that this seat appears to be a logical layout. The Gulf Islands form an unbroken chain commencing immediately in front of the city of Nanaimo, and have, to a very great extent, identical economic pursuits."

Evidently Mr. Phillips has not consulted anyone on any of the Gulf Islands or he would not have arrived at this amazing conclusion.

The islands at present in the Islands constituency have socially, politically or economically nothing in common with Nanaimo, so far as we can discern. There is no means of transportation for automobiles or passengers other than by private craft. Salt Spring Island has an automobile ferry service connecting with North Saanich. During the summer months this ferry (the "Cy Peck") makes a tour around the islands every Wednesday, stopping here and there — but at no islands outside our present riding and never goes to Nanaimo. The Motor Princess on the Sidney-Steveston run during the summer months calls at ports in the Islands riding during weekends — but does not go near Nanaimo. The C.P.R. Gulf Islands service, that carries the mail for these islands, does not call at Nanaimo. The fact is Nanaimo and the islands immediately adjacent have nothing in common with the islands in the present Islands riding. The citizens of the Islands riding have direct contact with Victoria and Vancouver by C.P.R. service the year round, Salt Spring Island with Victoria via North Saanich the year round, and the other islands in our group with Victoria and North Saanich during the summer months. In addition to all these services the islanders within the Islands riding have many social intercourses owing to the compact grouping of their islands. It is logical that North Saanich should be in this group as the north end of the Saanich Peninsula is very convenient to almost all the islands in the present riding, Sidney being the landing point for scores of privately owned craft of the islanders every week.

We certainly believe redistribution is advisable as time goes on. In some instances — due to shifting of population — but can see no logical reason for carving up the Islands district at present. The entire area is now unorganized territory — the new proposed layout will be partly organized and partly unorganized in both cases. The proposal to put North Saanich in with the municipality of Saanich naturally suggests that North Saanich either become a municipality on its own or be absorbed by Saanich. In either case taxes are likely to be increased.

There is the argument that the Islands is a small riding and should be added to some other riding. The proposed new riding of Alberni has only a few hundred more registered voters than the Islands. There are seven ridings smaller numerically than the Islands: Atlin, 1,618; Columbia, 2,077; Grand Forks-Greenwood, 2,218; Omineca, 2,221; Skeena, 2,086; and Yale, 2,061. Registered voters in the Islands riding, 2,528.

We know of very few in favor of the Islands riding being abolished and suggest that non-party and party meetings be held immediately in all parts of the riding to protest against the Islands riding being made into a Czechoslovakia for the appeasement of Alberni.

The Provincial Government has an overwhelming majority on the committee in the House now in session considering the proposed changes in riding constituencies but, in the case of the Islands riding, surely the wishes of practically 100 percent of the people will not be ignored when the final decision comes.

In the meantime the Government will not be impressed if citizens only talk about it instead of getting busy and doing something! Protests should be made immediately!

The bell, which concealed the numerous and lovely gifts, was designed and made by Mrs. Keith Wilson, who was also responsible for the very attractive table decoration.

INSTITUTE MEETS AT GANGES

Ask That Lady Member Always Be On School Board; First Aid Classes

GANGES, Nov. 2. — The regular monthly meeting of the Ganges Women's Institute was held Friday afternoon in the committee room of the Mahon Hall. The president, Mrs. N. W. Wilson, was in the chair.

Following routine business the representative on the board of directors of the Islands' Farmers' Institute stated that a pruning demonstration would be held on the island shortly. Also, that a series of talks on agricultural subjects would be given by speakers from various governmental departments. These lectures would be open to members and others wishing to attend, all being cordially invited.

Prizes have been awarded and will be sent to the four winners of the recent children's garden competitions.

A considerable amount of wool was teased, during the afternoon, for the quilt which the members of the needlework committee are engaged in working on.

Mrs. Spicer received a hearty vote of thanks at the conclusion of her interesting and comprehensive report on the South Vancouver Island conference, which, as delegate from the institute, she had attended at the Parliament Buildings, Victoria. In her account of the proceedings, she brought out some interesting suggestions as subjects for discussion.

Unanimous approval was given to Mrs. C. A. Goodrich's resolution, that a lady member be always included on the board of school trustees.

The president announced that, next, Dr. J. Bryant would start a series of classes in first aid, to be held in Ganges Inn.

Ten hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Goodrich and Mrs. W. T. Burkitt.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY MEETS

GANGES, Nov. 2. — The regular monthly meeting of The Lady Minto Gulf Islands Ladies' Auxiliary, Ganges, took place recently in the board room of the Institution.

There was a considerable amount of mending, etc., accomplished during the afternoon and later, with the president, Mrs. G. J. Mount, in the chair, the business meeting was held.

There was discussion as to the advisability of becoming affiliated with the B.C. Hospital Association, the majority of the members present were in favor of the idea, but no definite decision was arrived at. A. G. Crofton will attend as official delegate from the board of directors, the forthcoming annual conference of the B.C. Hospitals' Association to be held at the Empress Hotel, Victoria, on Nov. 8th, 9th and 10th.

The remainder of the afternoon was given up to making the final arrangements for the Hallowe'en hospital ball held Monday evening, October 31st, at the Mahon Hall.

Mrs. G. J. Mount was elected supper convener, Mrs. A. B. Elliot and Mrs. P. Penrose, decoration committee. Mrs. M. B. Mount was appointed in charge of all prizes. Ten hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Frank Crofton and Mrs. C. Beddis.

MINSTREL SHOW AND BIG DINNER

A Night For The Whole Family, Friday, December 16th

A real "family night" is coming soon, so we are told, with Dec. 16th as the date to remember. The bumper program for this big night will open with an old fashioned chicken dinner, minus none of the trimmings, and will be followed by an entertainment such as has not appeared in this district for many years—a minstrel show. Some know what this promises and some do not, but those who do will be prepared for an evening full of fun while those who do not will not want to miss a minute.

The spacious rooms of Stacey's Hall have been engaged to accommodate the pleasure-seekers. At 6 o'clock tables for dinner will be spread in the front section, while from 8:30 o'clock on the main hall will be lively with the antics of the minstrels.

All dinner arrangements will be in keeping with the festive season of the coming month and special family rates have been arranged so that the whole family may take in both big events.

Both the Ladies' Aid and the board of St. Paul's United Church have this affair in hand and promise a night long to be remembered. Coming Events holds prices particulars.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY IS JOLLY AFFAIR

The Hallowe'en "Inch" party held by the Ladies' Guild of Holy Trinity Church was well attended, and a most enjoyable evening was spent, the various head-dresses worn causing much amusement.

Mrs. Nelson and Miss Jeffery very kindly gave a few selections on the "Pipes of Pan" during the evening, and Walter Jones, in his usual inimitable style, sang "Come to the Fair" and the "End of the Road." Jock Anderson's house-hoosie was most popular.

Financially the party was a great success.

The prize winners were the following:

Most original head-dress—Miss Gwynne; a close runner-up, Mrs. Jock Anderson.

The prettiest head-dress—Miss Diana Fraser.

The tallest head-dress—Mrs. Macdonald.

Darts—Mr. Baker.

Candles—Gilbert Ball.

Peeing apples—Mrs. Copi-horne.

Squash pie—Miss Rawden.

Ring the bell—George Ball.

Weight of pumpkin—Mr. Lancaster.

Apple bobbing—Miss Rawden.

Special for apple bobbing—Miss Mary Paul.

"Guess Who"—Mrs. Bowman and Miss Fraser, tied.

Refreshments brought to a close a very jolly evening.

PRETTY WEDDING AT FULFORD

Miss Helen Margaret Larson Becomes Bride Of Mr. Alfred George Judd

FULFORD, Nov. 2. — A very pretty wedding took place on Friday evening, Oct. 28th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy S. Horel, Fulford-Ganges Road, when Rev. E. J. Thompson united in marriage Miss Helen Margaret Larson, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. S. Larson of Cariboo, and Mr. Alfred George Judd, son of Mr. H. F. Judd and the late Mrs. Judd, of Portland, Oregon, the ceremony taking place at 8:30 p.m. amidst a large gathering of friends.

The rooms were prettily decorated in a pink and white color scheme, white streamers, pink and white chrysanthemums, dahlias and white asters. The ceremony took place under an archway decorated with white chrysanthemums and foliage.

The bride looked charming as she entered the room on the arm of Mr. Horel, to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Florence Groves. The bride wore a beautiful pale blue silk taffeta gown made in tight-fitting style with long flared skirt, from the shoulder a small bunch of miniature pink velvet rosebuds, with narrow blue and pink velvet ribbons, trailed to the waistline where a similar trimming of rosebuds were placed, and from there to the floor made a pretty finish to the simple lines of the dress. She wore silver sandals, her veil was shoulder length, caught up at the side with a single pink rose. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and maidenhair fern.

The bride was attended by one bridesmaid, Miss Lois Campbell, who wore a pretty gown of pale pink taffeta, cut on tight-fitting lines, with this was worn a large white picture hat and silver slip. (Please turn to Page Three)

SHOWER FOR BRIDE AT GANGES

GANGES, Nov. 2. — Mrs. A. Campbell and Mrs. H. Smith were joint hostesses last Wednesday evening at an enjoyable miscellaneous shower given in honor of Miss Helen Larson, whose wedding to Mr. G. Judd took place on Friday, Oct. 28th.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, where the shower was held, was prettily decorated with white and pink streamers and masses of greenery.

Under an archway of cedar boughs and electric lights the bride and bridegroom-elect received their many attractive gifts, presented by Miss Marion Campbell dressed in the costume of a page boy.

During the evening there was dancing; the guests also took part in games and contests. The winners of the latter were Misses Maureen Seymour, Helen Larson, Lorraine Wakelin, Misses George Judd, A. Hogan and Fred Young. Later in the evening refreshments were served.

Among those present were: Misses Dore and Lois Campbell, Eileen Cearley, Alice Howard, Beatrice May, Patsy McLennan, Beatrice and Monica Smith, Messrs. Joe Briggs, A. Dyer, Luke Harrison, Howard Hean, Gerald Howard, I. Mollett, Harry Nichols, Percy Nelson, Ralph Seymour, Ray Wakelin, Jack Campbell.

CHILDREN ENJOY MASQUERADE

Brentwood Bay Women's Institute Arrange Jolly Hallowe'en Party

BRENTWOOD BAY, Nov. 2. — Approximately 100 children enjoyed the Hallowe'en masquerade dance and party given by the Women's Institute in the hall here on Friday evening. The decorations were in keeping with the spirit of Hallowe'en.

The grand march commenced at 7:15 p.m., the teachers of the surrounding districts in charge: Miss Gafeman of West Saanich, Miss McKenzie of Saanich, and Miss C. McNab and Miss Thompson of Keating. Costumes were of Victorian style, comic, advertising, Hallowe'en, original, and specials.

Mrs. J. R. Parsell, Mrs. R. E. Nimmo and Mrs. C. Nott, the judges, had difficulty in making decisions, there were so many worthy costumes. The prizes were awarded to the children, and they played musical chairs and other games, after which they sat down to supper. The long tables were prettily arranged with Hallowe'en favors and colored streamers, and each child received candy.

OPPOSED TO ABOLITION OF ISLANDS RIDING

Salt Spring Liberals Are Against Move; Alan Chambers Speaks

GANGES, Nov. 2. — The annual general meeting of the Salt Spring Island Liberal Association was held in Ganges Inn on Wednesday, Oct. 26th.

The meeting took the form of a banquet and was well attended by the members. W. M. Mount occupied the chair and gave a resumé of the activities of the association during the past year. In the election of officers for the ensuing year the following were elected:

Honorary President — Alan Chambers.

President—Colin F. Mount.

Vice-President—N. W. Wilson.

Secretary—Captain Dave Fyvie.

Committee—L. R. Beddis, Jack Abbott, G. A. Mathewson, M. H. Gardner, C. A. Cartwright, G. St. Denis, C. H. Wagg, J. Chantelu, W. M. Mount.

Some discussion took place regarding the government's reported intention to bring in a redistribution bill at this session of the House whereby the Islands constituency would be abolished and another riding created up-island, and the members were unanimous in their opinion that every effort should be made to prevent this taking place. It was felt that if an honest attempt were being made to redistribute the ridings and reduce the membership in the House by six or seven members that no exception could be taken, but that it was manifestly unfair to con- (Please turn to Page Four)

RETURN FROM EAST

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cochran have arrived home after an extended trip of about six weeks to eastern Canada visiting in Nova Scotia and Ontario.

FIRE ON ISLAND

Friday evening the workshop of Captain John Reid on a little island just to the south of Mary Island, opposite the Canoe Cove Shipyard at Canoe Cove caught on fire and an adjoining woodpile, a call for help resulted in a hurried trip of the fire truck to Canoe Cove where the portable pump was taken by boat to the scene of the blaze. The fire was extinguished and the house nearby saved. Fortunately the wind was blowing away from the house until the fire brigade arrived. The workshop and shed were destroyed.

RAINFALL FOR OCTOBER

HALLOWE'EN ACTIVITIES

Hundreds of happy children gathered in groups on Monday night in all parts of the district to celebrate Hallowe'en. The fancy dress of those on parade, representing old witches, tramps, ghosts, clowns, etc., with false faces to suit the costume, were most interesting as they went from door to door with sacks, pillow cases, carpet bags, etc., begging for wares and received apples, candies, peanuts, etc., from generous hosts and hostesses. Other groups attended house parties where heaps of fun prevailed in jolly Hallowe'en games and contests, and some enjoyed bon-fires and fireworks. The weather was very favorable for a good time, rain keeping off until fairly late in the evening. Those bent on mischief were busy during the late hours but very little damage was reported, not doubt owing to the vigilance of Constable Thompson and his assistants from the city.

SILVER WEDDING

They sailed on Saturday night for their home in China on the Empress of Asia.

EMBROIDERY DISPLAYED

One of the outstanding features of the recent Arts and Crafts Exhibition in Victoria was the display of the new set of embroidery for St. Andrew's Church, Sidney. The set consists of a new altar frontal, burse and veil, stole, antependium and book markers. The embroidery was worked principally in gold thread on blue damask ground and represents almost six months' work by the members of the Cathedral and Embroidery Guild. The set will be dedicated on St. Andrew's Day, Nov. 30th.

IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Marvin Eckart is a patient in Jubilee Hospital. Her many friends will hope to see her home soon.

CHRISTENING SERVICE

The infant son of Rev. T. R. Lancaster and Mrs. Lancaster was christened on Sunday morning in St. Andrew's Church, Sidney, by the Rt. Rev. H. E. Sexton, Bishop of Columbia. The baby received the names John Curzon Allardice, and the godparents are Miss Amy Angus, Mr. Peter Barr, and Very Rev. H. R. Ragg, Dean of Calgary, for whom Mr. W. Parker stood proxy. In the afternoon a reception was held in the parish hall. Rev. and Mrs. Lancaster received about 90 members of the congregations of St. Andrew's and Holy Trinity parishes. The hall was beautifully decorated with leaves and flowers, the work of Mrs. E. W. Hammond. Refreshments were served from a prettily appointed table, with a beautifully decorated christening cake holding the place of honor. Mrs. J. J. White, Mrs. R. J. Gwynne, Mrs. C. F. Gibson and Mrs. O. Thomas presided at the tea table. The Misses Pat Gibson, Kitty Hammond, Eileen McKenzie and Grace King assisted with the serving.

WORK CAMPS OPEN

The Forestry Camps for unemployed single men are now being opened up by the Provincial Government for the winter months. There will be five camps on the island and six on the mainland. The island camps are located at Dean Park, Mount Newton; Glintz Lake, near the Sooke fish hatchery; at Englishman's River Falls; at Elk River Falls and at Koksilah, near Duncan. This year a new project under the supervision of the Public Works Department, with camps to be operated at Otter Point, where work will be done on the West Coast Road, and at Mount Douglas Park. It is expected that about 300 men will be employed under this scheme. The camp on Mt. Newton was opened last year and about 100 men worked all winter building a road to John Dean Park. The road was built from King's Road to a point a short walking distance from the summit and park. It is expected it will be completed this winter.

HALLOWE'EN TEA SUCCESS

Quite a nice sum of money was realized by the Guide and Scout Associations, proceeds from their tea held on Monday afternoon, Oct. 31st, in the Guide and Scout Hall. An array of seasonable decorations were a fitting background and the tea table from which refreshments were served buffet style, was decorated with tall orange tapers in black candlesticks and orange flowers in low black bowls. The Guides served the tea.

The home-cooking stall was well patronized.

Mrs. Nelson and Miss Jeffrey, of Deep Cove, delighted everyone with their playing of their pipes. Mrs. Gale, divisional commissioner, spoke a few words on guiding, and of the need of support and help from parents of the Guides. A sing-song by the Guides brought the tea to a close.
